ABOUT ME

I am a passionate and dedicated Graphic Designer, graduating from Notre Dame University (NDU) with a high GPA. My work revolves around creating thoughtful and engaging visual solutions through branding, typography, packaging, photography, UI design, and video editing. As a freelancer, I have collaborated with individuals, small businesses, and social media brands to develop visuals that strengthen their identity and communicate their message effectively. I am always eager to grow as a designer, constantly exploring new creative ideas, learning through online courses, attending design exhibitions, and working on personal projects that push my skills further.
